

The Sports Committee, National Law School of India University

In association with

The Sports Law and Policy Centre

Presents

THE SPIRITUS SPORTS LAW AND POLICY ESSAY COMPETITION 2016

TOPICS (SELECT ONE):

- 1. Rule 40 of the Olympic Charter - Is it a necessity to preserve the unique nature of the Olympics or an unduly restrictive and unfair restraint?
- 2. Should certain sporting disciplines do away with separate events for men and women?
- 3. The Lodha Committee Recommendations: Timely intervention or a case of unnecessary judicial activism?

SPECIFICATIONS

Word limit: 3500-4500 words (inclusive of footnotes)

Citation Style: OSCOLA (4th edn., 2012)

Maximum 2 co-authors are permitted

Last Date for Submission: August 23, 2016 (11:59 PM, IST)

PRIZES

1st - Rs. 7500

2nd - Rs. 5000

3rd - Rs. 2500

All law students are eligible.

Please send all entries to spiritus.sportslawessay@gmail.com

Queries may be directed to sregurupriya@nls.ac.in

Contact: Sregurupriya (+919620242826)

Authors of winning entries will also receive the opportunity to intern at the Sports Law and Policy
Centre.

(www.sportslaw.in)